- Casual, friendly and international work environment.

Main tasks and responsibilities

- Coordination and design of ESN's range of publications;
- Conceptualising, proposing and designing of ESN web pages;
- General communication and project support for ESN International.

Required skills and experience

- Background in communication, graphic design or similar fields;
- Demonstrable design skills with a strong portfolio;
- Advanced proficiency in Adobe Suite tools (Illustrator, Photoshop, InDesign);
- Experience with UI, UX and web design;
- Knowledge of project management and coordination;
- Very good knowledge of written English;
- Flexibility with working hours;
- Quick learner with a structured way of working;
- Able to work in a team but also to take own initiatives and work independently;
- Able to prioritise and handle several concurrent projects.

Highly valued

- Experience in a European network;
- Experience in front-end web development (HTML/CSS/JS);
- Previous experience and knowledge of the European dimension of higher education;
- Knowledge of ESN and its projects.

To apply, please send a motivation letter, CV and a portfolio of relevant work to applications@esn.org by 18th September 2016, 23:59 CET. Interviews, either at our office in Brussels or via Skype, will be conducted as soon as we find potential applicants. Please use the subject line “Graphic Designer”.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any additional questions regarding the position. For more information on ESN's projects, see <http://esn.org/projects>.
